The Lawyer's Guide to Fact Finding on the Internet
 (by Carole Levitt, J.D., M.L.S. & Mark E. Rosch; American Bar Association, 2004)

$79.95

This may be the most user-friendly Internet research book available for legal professionals today! You'll find:

- Over 600 pages of information, containing more categories than the last edition, more pages, completely updated URLs, and much more
- Over 100 screen shots of the specific Web sites discussed
- An easy-to-use topical structure, organized the way lawyers think, starting with the best sites first
- An icon system to immediately identify free sites, free-with-registration sites, and pay sites
- Practical tips and advice on using specific sites, alerting readers to quirks or hard-to-find information

Included with the book is a valuable CD-ROM that includes the links to all of the sites discussed in the book, indexed, so you can easily navigate to these cream-of-the-crop Web sites without typing URLs into your browser! Also provided are helpful checklists, including a Source Credibility Checklist.
